

the record shows platted the town of Whitestown and the Ambrose Neese
State Of Indiana, Boone County, SS:

Come noe Isaac Isenhour, and being first duly sworn upon his oath, says that he has resided in Worth Township, Boone County, Indiana, near the vicinity of the now town of Whitestown, Boone County, Indiana, since the year 1848.

Affiant further says that he remembers when the town of Whitestown was laid out and platted by Ambrose Neese. That said town was laid out and platted about the year 1850 as New Germantown. That after said town had been platted and application made for a Post Office it was found that there was another Post Office in the State of Indiana by the name of New Germantown and thereupon the name of the said New Germantown was changed to Whitestown and ever since said date said town has been and is known as the town of Whitestown, Boone County, Indiana.

Affiant further says that he was well and personally acquainted with John King who entered from the United States the east half of the northwest quarter of Section 19 in Township 18 North and Range 2 East, being the land upon which the town of New Germantown, now Whitestown, now stands and that to affiant's personal knowledge, the said John King whom the record shows entered said real estate and the said John J. King, who conveyed said real estate to Ambrose Neese as shown by Re-Record of Deeds No 1 at page 324 in the Recorder's Office of Boone County, Indiana, is the same and identical person as the John King who entered said real estate.

Affiant further says that he was well and personally acquainted with Ambrose Neese who laid out and platted the original plat of New Germantown and afterwards laid out and platted the same town into Whitestown, and that to affiant's personal knowledge the Ambrose Nees, to whom the said John King conveyed the real estate platted into Whitestown as aforesaid, and the Amrose Nees whom the record shows platted the town of Whitestown and the Ambrose Neese who conveyed to William A. McDaniel Lot 1 and 6 in New Germantown, Indiana, each are the same lots as Lots No.1 and 6 in the Original Plat of the town of Whitestown, are the same and identical person.

Affiant further says that he was well and personally acquainted with William A. McDanall, to whom under and by the name and style of William A. McDaniels, the above named Ambrose Neese and wife, Katharine on the 21st day of August, 1952, by Warranty Deed conveyed lots 1 and 6 in New Germantown, Indiana (being the same lots as Lots 1 and 6 in the town of Whitestown, Indiana), as shown by RE-Record of Deeds No.3 at page 382 in the Recorder's Office of Boone County, Indiana, and that to affiant's personal knowledge the said William A. McDanall is the same and identical person as the William A. McDanall who together with Polly McDanall his wife, on the 11th day of July, 1859, by Warranty Deed conveyed the above ~~deed~~ described real estate to George Craft under and by the name and style of Lots 1 and 6 in Whitestown, Indiana, as shown by Deed Record NO. 3, page 580 in the Recorder's Office of Boone County, Indiana. Affiant further says that the above named William A. McDanall and Polly McDanall on the 11th day of July, 1859, at the time of the execution of said deed, were husband and wife, and that the William A. McDonald and Polly McDanall. whom the record shows acknowledged said deed are the same and identical persons as the above named William A. McDanall and Polly McDanall .

And further affiant saith not.

Isaac J. Isenhour.
