Mrs. Burress is a graduate of Whitestown high school and Indiana Central Business College. She is employed as a bookkeeper at Shelby Implement Sales.

Mr. Burress, a graduate of Zionsville high school, served during World War II in the infantry, several months of duty having been spent overseas. He is attending Purdue University.

thing new, something borrowed and something blue.

The bridegroom was accompanied to the altar by his best man, Winston Terrill.

The wedding party left the altar to the traditional strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March and received their guests in the basement of the church. On the service table, covered with a linen cloth, was a beautiful wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. The couple cut the cake together.

The bride is employed in the offices of Honan-Crane. The bridegroom is a student at Purdue University.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left for a short wedding trip.

LOVELY CHURCH WEDDING

Brown's Wonder church, northeast of Lebanon, was the scene Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock for the wedding of Miss Donna Mae Hedge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hedge, R. R. 6, Lebanon, and James D. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Anderson of near Lebanon.

Palms, ferns and lighted candelabra graced the altar, where the couple exchanged marriage vows in a double-ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Lilburn Stottlemeyer, pastor of the church.

A program of bridal music preceded the ceremony with piano numbers by Mrs. Clarence Hill, who also accompanied the vocalist, Walter Anderson, brother of the bridegroom. Mrs. Hill's first group included "Star Dust," "My Hero," "Liebestraum" and "Memory Lane." Mr. Anderson sang "Always," "Yours," and "I Love You Truly."

Leading the bridal procession were the ushers, Robert Hedge, brother of the bride, and Clarence Hill, followed by the bridesmaid, Miss Pauline Hedge, sister of the bride, who wore a street-length yellow poplin dress and a corsage of pink carnations.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was lovely in a street-length dress of aqua crepe with white accessories and a corsage of six American beauty roses. She carried out the tradition of something old, some-

Exchange Vows

The marriage of Miss Betty Stokes and Carl E. Johnson took place at 2:30 p. m. yesterday in Second Evangelical and Reformed Church. The Rev. W. Franklin Lahr performed the double-ring ceremony.

Entering alone, the bride was attired in a gown of white slipper satin yoked with nylon lace. The full skirt extended into a long train. Her veil fell from an illusion headdress and she carried orchids, white roses and lilies of the valley, in a Colonial bouquet.

Miss Lola Stokes was maid of honor and Miss Lorraine Parks and Miss Ada Kelshaw were bridesmaids. Little Bonnie Johnson was flower girl and Bobby Hoggard was ringbearer.

Wayne E. Ackman was best man, and William R. Jennings, Haverstick Park; Herman Haggard and Henry W. Johnson, Ft. Knox, Ky., ushered.

On their return from New York, the couple will be at home at 412 E. Southern Ave.

ISENHOWER-REAGON

A wedding of charming simplicity took place Saturday evening at eight o'clock at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. James E. Byrd in this city when Miss Marjorie Bernice Reagon and Ralph Donald Isenhower were united in marriage. The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Mr. Byrd.

The bride was becomingly attired in a street length dress of blue and white print and her shoulder bouquet was of white carnations.

Mrs. William Davis, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Chester L. Isenhower, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Guests at the wedding were the couple's immediate relatives and the family of the Rev. Mr. Byrd.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Reagon of Hazelrigg. She attended Dover high school and is employed at Scott's store. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Isenhower of near Whitestown. He attended Whitestown high school and is employed by the U. S. Machine Corporation. He is a veteran of World War II, having served with the Third Army in the European area and received his discharge in December, 1946.

Mr. and Mrs. Isenhower are residing in their newly furnished home northeast of Mechanicsburg on the Bert Essex farm.

LOVELY WEDDING

Aug 10-47

Gladioli, snapdragons and baskets of mixed flowers decorated the altar of the St. Mary's Catholic church in Decatur, Ind., for the wedding of Miss Alice Jean Roop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Roop of Decatur, and Russell L. Schooler Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Schooler Sr. of this city, performed at nine o'clock Saturday morning by the Rev. Ignatius Vichuras. The aisle of the church was carpeted in white.

Preceding the nuptial high mass, Sr. M. Patricia, C. S. A., played "Oh Lord, I Am Not Worthy" and "On This Day O Beautiful Mother" during communion.

The bride, with her father, walked altarward in a gown of white satin and nylon chiffon. A high neckline with an inserted nylon chiffon yoke outlined in two rows of lace featured the fitted satin bodice, from which fell a full nylon chiffon skirt ending in a long train. Her fingertip veil was of imported illusion and fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses, outlined with a pleated frill of moline and lace and tied with a large white satin bow.

Mrs. Ted Bolinger attended the bride as matron-of-honor. She wore a gown of pale yellow dotted swiss, styled with a fitted waistline and full skirt. The neckline was enhanced with a bertha effect edged in a white organdy ruffle, matching the ruffle that edged the waistline. She wore elbow-length mitts of matching material and a semi-halo of shasta daisies, from which a net of matching color fell to her shoulders. Mrs. Robert Uleman as bridesmaid and Miss Joyce Parent, cousin of the bride, as junior bridesmaid, wore identically styled gowns of aqua. Their colonial bouquets were of pastel shaded roses, set in a circle of moline, knotted with satin ribbon streamers. They also wore single strands of pearls, gifts of the bride.

The bridegroom's attendants included Ted Bolinger as best man and William Roop, brother of the bride, and Charles Schooler, brother of the bridegroom, ushers.

A white sheer summer dress with white gloves and a white

EXCHANGE WEDDING VOWS

The marriage of Miss Phyllis Thrine and Ross Neese, Jr., took place Saturday afternoon at two o'clock in St. Joseph's Catholic rectory. The Rev. Andrew A. Oehm, CSSR, read the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Cline, northwest of Lebanon, and Mr. Neese is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Neese, 717 Evans street.

The bride was attired in a soft powder blue taffeta ballerina dress with grey and white accessories. She wore a shoulder bouquet of gardenias surrounded with pink roses. The tradition of wearing something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue was carried out.

Miss Martha Ruth Endres, the bride's only attendant, wore an aqua dressmakers suit with pink accessories and her shoulder bouquet was of pink roses.

Robert Thrine, brother of the bride, served as best man.

Mrs. Thrine, mother of the bride, wore a grey crepe dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Neese, mother of the bridegroom, wore a tan gabardine suit with brown accessories and her corsage was of white carnations.

The wedding took place on the bridegroom's birthday.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride and bridegroom cut the three-tier wedding cake which was topped with miniature bride and bridegroom figurines. Refreshments were served by candlelight in the dining room by Mrs. Philip Thrine and Miss Patricia Copeland.

Mrs. Neese is employed in the traffic department of the Lebanon office of the Indiana Bell Telephone. Mr. Neese is employed by the Metzger Lumber Company. Both are graduates of Lebanon high school with the class of 1947.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Neese will be at home for the present with the bride's parents.

Guests at the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Thrine, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Neese, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Thrine, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Buckingham, Miss Erma Neese, Miss Miriam Neese, Miss Martha Ruth Endres, Miss Patricia Copeland, Bud Webb, Ronald Neese and Robert Thrine.

couple left on a wedding trip. A corsage of white roses was pinned to her ensemble.

Mrs. Schooler was graduated from Decatur Catholic high school and is employed in the engineering office of the Central Soya Company. She is a member of the Decatur chapter of Delta Theta Tau sorority. Mr. Schooler served two years with the United States Coast Guard on a destroyer escort. He is now employed at Arnold and Klenk, Decatur.

Upon their return the couple will reside at 421 West Adams street, Decatur.

Immediately following the ceremony dinner was served at the K. of C. hall for the bridal party and immediate families. The bride's table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake, topped with an arrangement of small flowers and surrounded with greenery and lighted tapers in crystal holders. A reception followed from two to four o'clock. Baskets and low bowls of flowers decorated the hall and the serving table, laid in white linen, was centered with the wedding cake, flanked on either side by white candles and surrounded by smilax. Miss Jane Geise, Miss Kathleen Acker, Mrs. Fred Bierly and Mrs. Leo Hackman assisted in serving the guests at the dinner and reception.

Included among the wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schooler and Miss Merl Harvey of Whitestown, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Schooler Sr. and son and Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Porter of Lebanon and Miss Ruth Schooler of Gary.

The bride was dressed in a black two-piece frock with black and white accessories when the

ABBOTT-GLEASON

In a beautiful ceremony solemnized in the North Salem Methodist Church Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, Miss Helen Gleason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gleason of North Salem, became the bride of Leo Abbott, son of Mrs. Vella Abbott of North Vernon, formerly of Lebanon.

The Rev. John Barkley, pastor of the Lebanon Centenary Methodist Church, officiated, using the double ring service. The vows were repeated before an arrangement of tall palms, ferns, baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums and seven-branch candelabra holding white cathedral candles.

Prior to the service Mrs. Belle Hennon, organist, played a program of wedding music, including "Always," "I Love You Truly," "When You Were Sweet Sixteen" and "Because," changing to Wagner's wedding march for the processional. Mendelssohn's wedding march was used for the recessional.

Mrs. Juanita Klein of North Salem, the matron of honor, chose a gown of heliotrope rayon faille and she wore matching mitts. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses. Mrs. Jeanne Gleason of Indianapolis and Miss Lillian Colglazier of Lebanon, the bridesmaids, wore gowns of fuchsia and green, designed to match the gown worn by the matron of honor. Both carried bouquets of Talisman roses.

George M. Brock of Whitestown was the bridegroom's best man and Noble Ross and Raymond Daily of Lebanon were ushers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in mellow ivory slipper satin fashioned with a sheer marquise yoke, accented with seed pearl motif and Chantilly lace on the sculptured basque. The long fitted sleeves tapered to bridal points over the hands. The bouffant skirt extended into a majestic cathedral train. She carried a bouquet of white roses centered with a white orchid.

The bride's mother wore a green printed silk dress with brown accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue dress. Both wore corsages of pink roses.

A lawn reception immediately following the ceremony was held at the home of the bride's parents. A three-tier wedding cake with bride and bridegroom decoration was served with punch by Mrs. Ralph Schoolcraft, Mrs. Jack Walker and Miss Mary Rush.

Mr. and Mrs. Abbott left after the reception on a several weeks tour through the West. The bride's going away costume was a gray dressmaker's suit with winter green accessories. They will make their home in North Salem.

The bride is a graduate of the Methodist Hospital School of Nursing at Indianapolis with the class of 1941.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Walker of Knightstown, Mrs. Norma Stewart, Mrs. Anna Voorhis, Dr. Robert Wiseheart and family, Noble Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Daily, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Williams and the Rev. Howard of Indianapolis, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Gossett of Jamestown and Miss Maxine Anderson of New Market.

PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING

First Presbyterian Church was the scene of a lovely wedding Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when Miss Marjorie Joan Glendenning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Glendenning of Lebanon route two, and Kenneth Allan Hine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiatt Hine of near Whitestown, exchanged marriage vows.

The Rev. Fred Wolff, pastor of Central Christian Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony. The service was read before an arrangement

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Anderson of Cutler, Miss Evelyn Heintz of Denver, Colorado, and Miss Trudy Gamba of Dallas, Texas.

Mr. Anderson of Hagerstown, a cousin of the bridegroom, vocalist, presented a program of wedding music. Miss McNeal played a medley of bridal airs, including "At Dawning" and "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms," and Mr. Anderson sang "Always," "Because" and "Thine Alone." Wagner's march from "Lohengrin" was played for the processional and Mendelssohn's march from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" was used for the recessional.

Mrs. George Wienland of Indianapolis, college roommate of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a green crepe dress with black accessories and her flowers were American Beauty roses.

Hazen Ward was the best man and the ushers were George Hine, brother of the bridegroom, and Darrell Smith, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a street length dress of beige crepe with brown accessories and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses from which fell silver streamers on a white Bible.

The bride's mother wore a grey suit with wine accessories and her corsage was of Johanna Hill roses.

The bridegroom's mother was attended in navy blue with black accessories and her corsage was of roses.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents in Lebanon route two. Assisting in serving refreshments were Miss Hedreth Glendenning, Mrs. George Wienland, Miss Wilma Anderson and Mrs. Darrel Smith.

The couple left after the reception on a short wedding trip and after their return will reside west of Lebanon on State Road 32. Following the bride wore a red wool gabardine dress with black accessories.

DR. WILLIAM GREEN DIES IN HOSPITAL AT INDIANAPOLIS

Funeral For Lebanon
Dentist Will Be Held Friday.

Dr. William H. Green, prominent Lebanon dentist, died at 4:55 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Methodist hospital at Indianapolis, following an illness of about a year's duration. He was 75 years old.

Death was attributed to cardiac failure. Dr. Green became ill last fall, and he and Mrs. Green went to Florida to spend the winter. While residing in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Dr. Green became seriously ill and spent several weeks in a hospital there. He and Mrs. Green returned to Lebanon in April, but he was still confined to his home at 223 North Meridian street most of the time. He had been a patient in the Methodist hospital since July 11.

Dr. Green was born on a farm in Hendricks county, south of Royalton, on February 3, 1871. His father, Charles Green, was a native of West Virginia and his mother, Louisa Wilson Green, was a native of Kentucky. On November 17, 1903, Dr. Green was married in Zionsville to Nina Liedhardt, who survives him.

Following his graduation from the Indiana Dental College at Indianapolis, Dr. Green opened a dental office in Lebanon and had been a practicing dentist here for 45 years. He was an active member of the district dental society and was a past officer of that society. He had maintained his dental office in the Lebanon Office Building here until a few weeks ago when ill health forced him to close the office.

Dr. Green was an active member of the Centenary Methodist church of Lebanon, and had been a trustee of the church for more than

FORMER RESIDENT DIES YESTERDAY

John H. Lucas Expires
In California

John Harrison Lucas, a native of Boone county where he was born December 26, 1871, died yesterday afternoon at the Wadsworth Veterans hospital, Los Angeles, California.

He was the son of William M. Lucas and Caroline Roberts Lucas, both natives of Boone county. He was married to Ada Pearl Wagner, who is deceased.

Survivors are three children, Mrs. Beatrice Wolf and Gordon Nelson Lucas, both of Indianapolis, and Fred O. Lucas of Lebanon. One son is deceased. Mr. Lucas was the last of a family of four children.

Mr. Lucas spent most of his life in the Whitestown neighborhood. He was a soldier in World War I, serving overseas about 18 months.

The body is to be returned to Bratton Brothers funeral home, but the funeral arrangements have not yet been completed. Burial will be in the Lutheran cemetery, which is located east of Whitestown.

20 years. He was a former president of the Methodist Brotherhood of the church. He was a member of the Lebanon Rotary Club, and was faithful in his attendance until failing health forced him to take a less active part in the club. Dr. Green had always been very active in Republican party politics, and was Boone county manager for ex-Governor James Goodrich during his campaign for the governor's office.

Besides the widow, Dr Green is survived by one brother, Emery Green, a Boone county farmer, who lives near Royalton; and one sister, Mrs. Susie Wilson of Indianapolis. Three brothers, John, Charles, and Oliver, and two sisters preceded him in death.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Centenary Methodist church Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. C. Raymond Earle will officiate. Interment will be in the Little Eagle cemetery, northeast of Zionsville.

The body is at the Bratton Brothers funeral home, where friends may call until 2 o'clock Friday afternoon. The casket will not be opened at the church.

HOBART A. SMITH KILLED BY TRAIN

Was Former Resident Of Whitestown

Hobart Alman Smith, former resident of Whitestown, was killed when he reportedly stepped in front of a west-bound New York Central passenger train at the Lynhurst Drive crossing between the Rockville road and Washington street in Indianapolis Sunday forenoon at about 11:40 o'clock.

Mr. Smith, 28 years old, was a patient in the Central State hospital at Indianapolis. Hospital authorities said he disappeared from the establishment earlier in the day.

Mr. Smith was born in Hamilton county, the only child of Hadley A. Smith and Lilly A. Cragun Smith, both of whom are deceased. He was never married, and after the death of his parents he came to Whitestown to live with his grandmother, Mrs. Melvina Cragun. After her death, Mr. Smith made his home with his uncle and aunt, Crestes Cragun and Lulu Cragun, in Whitestown. He attended the Methodist church at Whitestown.

No arrangements have been made for the funeral, pending word from Orestes Cragun, who is spending his vacation at Hackensack, Minn. The body is at the Bratton Brothers funeral home in Lebanon, but the casket will not be opened to the public.

March 1946

WE are deeply appreciative and want to extend our sincere thanks to our friends, relatives and neighbors for their acts of kindness, expressions of sympathy and many floral tributes extended to us in the sudden death of our beloved son and brother, Gene Smock. We especially thank Rev. J. E. Byrd, pallbearers, flower-bearers, organists, singers, teachers of Perry Central School and Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Lawler.

In loving memory of Betty Lou Mefford, who died December 31, 1943.

Dear Betty:
As the weeks and months and years roll by,
We miss you more and more.
Yet we know that you are happy
On that bright and golden shore.
We know that you will be waiting
With your smile so bright and sweet,
Then we can walk and talk together
On the shining golden street.
We loved you, oh yes, we loved you,
But Jesus loved you best.
When he took you home to Heaven,
And gave you Eternal rest.
Sadly missed by Mother, Daddy, Sisters and Grandparents.

TRUCKER FATALLY INJURED IN CRASH

Gurnie Newman, Jr.,
Is Victim

Gurnie Cecil Newman, Jr., 28, 805 South Lebanon street, was injured fatally yesterday when a tractor-trailer he was driving went out of control and turned over between Paloma and Coatsburg, Ill.

Newman died soon after being removed from the cab by three men whose cars were near the scene of the accident. His neck was pinned between the steering wheel and the crush-in top of the cab and it was necessary to break the steering wheel with a hedgepost in order to release him. He was alone in the cab.

The tractor-trailer outfit apparently went out of control on the wet pavement in making a curve leading to a viaduct between the two cities. Tire marks on the pavement indicated that as Newman approached the curve more than 200 feet east of the viaduct his truck went to the left and plowed up the shoulder of the road for a short distance. Then it swerved to the right of the road and about 100 feet from that point suddenly swung to the left again. It jack-knifed as it crashed through a barrier and dropped down a five-foot embankment. The cab plunged down the slope and the front end of the trailer rolled over to the right and crushed the cab.

Newman owned the tractor-truck and was hauling a loaded trailer of the Hayes Freight Lines, South Bend, from South Bend.

Survivors include the widow, Etha Blackstock Newman, whom he married in September, 1945, two children, Jackey Lee, 5, and Donald Keith, one year, his parents, Gurnie Cecil Newman, Sr., and Hazel Reddick Newman, Route 5, Lebanon, near Hopewell church, and three sisters, Mrs

In memory of Pvt. Henry B. Dewey, who was killed in France, September 20, 1944.

Three years have passed since that sad day,

When one we loved was called away;

God took him home, it was His will,

Within our hearts he liveth still.

More and more each day we miss him;

Friends may think the wound is healed,

But they little know the sorrow

Lies within our hearts concealed.

The world may change from year to year,

And friends from day to day;

But never will the one we loved,

From memory pass away.

Sadly missed by

Mrs. Mildred Dewey and children, Shirley, James and Catherine,

Mrs. Anna Lee Dewey, mother,

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Campbell and family, and brothers and sisters.

MAN, WIFE KILLED AT RAIL CROSSING ON NOBLE STREET

March 28-48

Auto Of Joseph Smith Struck By Passenger Train Sunday

Joseph Smith, 61, 304 West Walnut street, Standard Manufacturing Co. employe, was instantly killed and wife, Delcia Artman Smith 54, fatally injured, at 5:30 p. m. yesterday when their auto was struck by a north bound New York Central passenger train at the East Noble street crossing.

Mrs. Smith died in Witham hospital 30 minutes after the accident.

Smith was thrown 60 feet from the auto, and Mrs. Smith was still in the wreckage after it had been carried about 100 feet down the tracks.

There were no witnesses to the accident. Police and the sheriff were called by a resident nearby who heard the sound of the crash.

Dr. Clancy Bassett, Boone county coroner, returned a verdict of accidental death. Dr. Bassett said Smith died of multiple fractures and internal injuries. Mrs. Smith apparently died of a skull fracture, the coroner said.

The Smiths were going west on East Noble street. Their auto, a 1937 sedan, was demolished.

The train was No. 405, in charge of Conductor H. L. Minning and Engineer Charles Baird. There are no obstructions to the view at the crossing and no warning signals are installed there. Sheriff Rush L. Robinson said Smith apparently drove up on the tracks without seeing the train.

Their survivors include one son Forrest O. Smith, Jolietville, Ind. one daughter, Mrs. Rosemary Hisey, Lebanon, four grandchildren and three step grandchildren.

A son, Pvt. William D. Smith was officially declared dead by the War Department in December 1945, after having been reported missing in action in Belgium since December 17, 1944.

Other survivors of Smith include two brothers, Erastus Smith Whitestown, and Robert E. Smith 504 West Noble street; and two sisters, Mrs. Betty Essex, Whites town, and Mrs. Jenny Ottinger, Warsaw, Ind.

He was a member of the Christian church at Fairview, Ind.

He was born in Boone county Oct. 11, 1886, the son of William Robison Smith, a native of Davis county, North Carolina, and Mary Rader Smith, a native of Tennessee.

Other survivors of Mrs. Smith include a half brother, Virgil Wor-

Huffman Baby Dies Suddenly

Cerebral Hemorrhage Fatal To Infant

Richard Van Huffman, four-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley E. Huffman, 1208 South East street, died suddenly about nine o'clock Friday night at the Witham hospital.

The baby apparently was well when the mother put him to bed and gave him his bottle. After drinking its contents he cried for about five minutes and then stopped. Thinking he had gone to sleep, the mother waited another ten minutes then went into the bedroom to put a cover on him and noticed blood on the pillow. The parents rushed him to the Witham hospital where a doctor pronounced him dead. After a consultation with Dr. Clancy Bassett, Boone county coroner, cerebral hemorrhage was determined as the cause of death.

The baby was born here April 12 and was a son of Stanley E. and Edna (Abney) Huffman. The father was born at Rosston and the mother at Lebanon. Besides the parents, he is survived by a half-brother, Michael E. Huffman, and the following half-sisters, Betty Lou Wilson of Anderson, Sandra Sue, Starlyn Lorainne and Gloria Jean Wilson of Lebanon; the grandparents, Harvey Abney of Lebanon, Maurice Huffman of Indianapolis and Mrs. Chloe Linton of Lebanon, and the great-grandfather, Frank Huffman of Lebanon.

Funeral services will be held Monday morning at ten o'clock at Myers mortuary with the Rev. Douglas B. Starks, pastor of the Walnut Street Baptist church, officiating. Burial will be in Oak Hill cemetery. Friends may call at the Myers mortuary.

PRICE AND HAND NUPTIALS READ

Whitestown Church

Scene of Wedding

Oct 31-1943

Whitestown, Nov. 2.—The soft glow of white candles in fourteen branch candelabra against a background of palms lent their charm to the wedding service read at two o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Whitestown Methodist church, when Miss Sarah Viola Hand, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Hand and Paul J. Price, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Price, of 3501 Brookside Parkway, South Drive, Indianapolis, were united in marriage. The single ring service was read by the Rev. James E. Byrd in the presence of seventy-five guests.

While the guests were assembling Mrs. Olive Lidell Casey, organist, played "O Promise Me." The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin by Wagner was played for the entrance of the bridal party, and for the recessional Mendelssohn's Wedding March, changing to "I Love You Truly," by Bond, "To a Wildrose" and "Just A Wearying For You," played during the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in an exquisite street length frock of white wool with brown and gold accessories and also wore a corsage of yellow roses. She carried a white testament.

Miss Lillian Hand, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor, and was costumed in a frock of light blue with Navy accessories. She wore a corsage similar to the bride's.

Gilbert Smith of Lebanon was groomsman and Leon Emmert of Jamestown and Louis Newman of Lebanon, brothers-in-law of the bride, were ushers.

Mrs. Hand and Mrs. Price, mother of the bride and groom, respectively, were attired in blue crepe. Both wore corsages of red roses.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the recreation room of the church.

Festoons of pink and white crepe paper from the chandeliers formed a canopy overhead. Streamers fell from the chandeliers to the corners of the serving table which was graced by three-tier white wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom. At either end of the table were crystal candle holders from which burned white tapers. The cake was cut and served by the bride.

The bride was graduated from the Whitestown high school with the class of 1941. She attended Ball State Teachers' College at Muncie. She has been employed as secretary to E. H. Rollins and Sons in Indianapolis.

The groom is a graduate from Technical high school, Indianapolis and attended Butler University. He serves radio station WAOV at Vincennes as an announcer.

Following a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Price will be at home at 1201 North Second street in Vincennes.

August 2-43
Marriage licenses were issued Saturday to: Charles Owen Meenach and Wilma Jean Jackson, both of Lebanon, Route 6; and to, Robert W. Tribbett of Three Rivers, Michigan and Virginia Taylor of Lebanon. Twenty licenses to wed were issued in July as compared with 24 issued in June, the month of brides.

Meenach-Jackson

In a very quiet but impressive wedding ceremony at the Indiana Methodist Children's Home in Lebanon at 4:30 Saturday afternoon, Miss Wilma Jean Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jackson, rural route 6, became the bride of Charles Owen Meenach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest A. Meenach, rural route 6. The Rev. J. C. Coons performed the single ring ceremony.

Mrs. Meenach is a graduate of the 1943 class of Lebanon High School and is at present employed at the U. S. Machine Corporation. Mr. Meenach, who is in the armed forces, is stationed at Camp Swift, Tex.

After a brief wedding trip, Mr. Meenach will return to Camp Swift. Mrs. Meenach, for the present, will continue to make her home with her parents.

Richman-Harlos

The marriage of Miss Marilyn Jane Harlos, daughter of Mrs. Mary Harlos, 418 East Washington street, Lebanon, and Noble E. Harlos, 1915 Kessler boulevard, Indianapolis, and James Anthony Richman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Richman, Lebanon route one, was solemnized Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the Rev. Raymond Duff. Mr. Duff officiated, reading the single ring ceremony.

The couple's attendants were Miss Virginia Gibbs and Ervin Reed.

The bride wore a becoming dress of lieutenant blue with matching full length coat, blue hat and black accessories. Her flowers were American Beauty rosebuds tied with silver ribbon.

Miss Gibbs wore a navy blue dress with matching accessories, red hat and a shoulder bouquet of American Beauty roses.

The bride attended Lebanon high school and was active in Girl Scout work here and is a member Job's Daughters, Whites-town Bethel. Mr. Richman is a graduate of Pinnell high school with the class of 1942 and is engaged in farming. Mr. and Mrs. Richman will reside with the bridegroom's parents for the present.

Bennington-Cooney

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Asenath Cooney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Cooney, to J. B. Bennington Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Bennington of Greenfield.

The wedding took place Wednesday, July 14, at the United Brethren parsonage in Pendleton. The Rev. Ralph Beckner officiated. The Rev. Mr. Beckner was a close friend of the family and a former pastor of the Greenfield United Brethren church.

Mrs. Bennington was a member of the 1943 graduating class of Greenfield high school. Mr. Bennington was graduated from the Maxwell high school with the 1943 graduating class. He is employed at the Delco-Remy plant in Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennington are at home at 225½ North Pennsylvania street in Greenfield.

Mr. Bennington is a former resident of Boone county.

Lovely Wedding At Kirklín

The Kirklín Methodist Church was the scene of the wedding Saturday of Miss Martha Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester William, and Charles Edgar Padgett, son of Mr. and Mrs. LaVere Padgett, Kirklín.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. George Riley, before an altar banked with ferns, palms, centered with white lilies and lighted with seven branched candelabra.

Preceding the ceremony wedding music was played by Mrs. Robert Flannary and Rev. George Riley sang, "Until," and "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Flannary.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white gown of sheer georgette over a white satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline accented with lace and full sheered skirt. She wore a finger tip veil and carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and swansoniana centered with an orchid.

Maid of honor, Miss Beth Warren, wore a beautiful dress of blue satin and net, and carried a bouquet of pink and white roses.

Alvin Crawford was best man and ushers were Emerson Curtis and Alexander Bogoeff.

Mrs. Williams wore a black crepe dress accented with white and her corsage was white gardenias. The mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Padgett, wore luggage brown and a corsage of pink and white roses.

A reception was held on the lawn at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony.

The couple left for a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home on a farm four miles west of Kirklín.

The bride is a graduate of the Kirklín high school and the bridegroom is a graduate of Jackson high school.
