MIMEOGRAPH PURCHASED

On October 24, the Curtis Magazine Company had a turkey dinner in honor of the Senior Class because they sold over $800 worth of magazines. The Curtis Magazine Company furnished a turkey, the girls furnished the trimmings and the decorations, while the boys furnished the dessert.

The class was divided up into two groups when the sales began, the girls on one team and the boys on the other. The girls did the dishes because they were the losing team.

Take a good look at "The Argus". The staff is very proud of the newly purchased B D C REX-ROTARY M-4 MIMEOGRAPH MACHINE.

The BDC Rex-Rotary operates on a completely new principle. It eliminates inking with a brush; changing messy ink pads; endlessly leaking ink; ragged, blurry copies; inky hands and clothes.

Using and maintaining the M-4 is clean. There is never any contact with ink while mounting or removing stencils. A complete color change leaves hands and

THANKS GIVING

THANKSGIVING-THEN AND NOW

We are all familiar with the history and traditions of Thanksgiving.

In the infantile days of our nation, there was no set day for Thanksgiving. Our Pilgrim Fathers were the first to observe a harvest thanksgiving in America in 1621.

During the Revolution, the Continental Congress annually recommended days of thanksgiving, and again in 1784 for the return of peace.

Thereafter, Thanksgiving celebrations throughout the nation remained sporadic and had no set date.

In 1863, President Abraham Lincoln set aside the fourth Thursday of November as Thanksgiving Day.

Each year thereafter the president proclaimed the holiday, which by custom was observed on the last Thursday of November.

It was not until 1941 that Congress changed it to the fourth Thursday of the month.

In our modern, hectic society, we seem to be overcome by tradition.

To many Americans, Thanksgiving is just a time to get out of school, visit with relatives, and feast. All of this is good and well, but perhaps a bit removed from the original meaning.

As we begin our short vacation, let's all stop and ask ourselves "What does Thanksgiving really mean to me?" Let's make everyday Thanksgiving Day.

SUNSHINE

"TRICK-OR-TREATS"

Ten members of the Sunshine Society went "trick-or-treating" for the Riley fund, on October 30. The society annually donates money to the Riley hospital for equipment and care for the afflicted children.

Sue Kirby, Bevel Sue Irvin, Roanna Myers, Emily Belcher, Norma Belcher, Phyllis Capps, Kay Kirby, Sharon Bennett, Patti Allen, Elaine McKinnis, and Rebecca Smith, collected $29.75.

The girls wish to thank all those who helped to make their project successful.

clothes clean.

We feel that because of this new machine, our school paper will be a much neater and easier to read paper.

LINDEN DEFEATS PANTHERS

Whitestown was snowed under during the first quarter as their shooting was very cold. They worked very hard the second quarter to bring the visiting Linden team down while their scoring remained the same as the first quarter.

The third quarter the Panthers were ready to take the game as they outscored their opponents 14 to 10. They started out strong in the fourth quarter but were still out-scored. The major factor in the game was the bad passes made by the Panthers.
