John McCord

Birth: 28 Jan 1803

Death: 15 Jan 1852 (aged 48) Boone County, Indiana, USA

Burial: McCord Cemetery, Whitestown, Boone County, Indiana, USA

Memorial #: 129477661

Bio: In the Boone Co. IN History Book 1984 on page 165, it states the following about the family:McCORD CEMETERYThe McCord Cemetery is the only cemetery in Worth Township that is still visible. It is southeast of Whitestown on land entered by John McCord.John entered the land in 1832 and was said to be one of the first to raise a crop of corn. John came to Boone County with his father, John Sr.; and his brothers, William and Samuel McCord, and a son-in-law, Robert Thomas, from Johnson County, IN.Of the stone still remaining, the earliest is that of Jack Aulton who died in 1841. He was the son of Irvin and Susanna Aulton.In August of 1849, the McCords lost three of their children, Lynda, Alexander, and Paulina. The cause must have been smallpox or typhus, as several others died within that month, all children: Alfred Booher, Arus Rude, George Brown, Levenus Kisling and John Aulton.John McCord died in 1852 and the land was sold to Richard Hull who is also buried in the cemetery among his family. Other surnames are: Neese, Wills, Beaman, White, Hawkins, Parrish, Brandenburg, Porter, and Standeford. The last burial known, was that of Elizabeth Neese, age 79, in 1888.

John Ottinger

Birth: 8 Jan 1807

Death: 9 Mar 1886 (aged 79)

Burial: McCord Cemetery, Whitestown, Boone County, Indiana, USA

Memorial #: 66261323

Bio: The surname has most commonly been spelled "Ottinger" on all records pertaining to John. Did the stonemason make a mistake or are all the records incorrect? John was the sixth of nine children born to Johannes "John" Ottinger and Susana Brock. John was christened at St James Lutheran Church in Greene county Tennessee. John married Susannah Bible on 25 Oct 1830 in Tennessee. John and Susan moved to Boone county Indiana sometime between 1843 and 1845. John and Susan had approx 11 children: Noah; Elizabeth; Adam; Mary Ann; Margaret; Clarissa; William; Lilly; Nancy; Melissa Ester and John.

Inscription: 79 years 2 months 2 days

Gravesite Details Last name more likely Ottinger, might have been misspelled by stone mason
